Mission Statement

St. Vincent de Paul is a faith community striving to live Jesus' gospel message of love, peace and justice for all peoples. In the spirit of St. Vincent de Paul, our inclusive community welcomes, affirms and serves both the poorest of the poor and those who are alienated and most vulnerable among us. Our individual faith journeys join together in the celebration of the Eucharist. Through the guidance of the Holy Spirit, we will continue to nurture the gifts of all our members. Our parish family will draw strength and unity from diversity. We will foster an atmosphere of warmth, hospitality and prayerfulness. We pray that our commitment to these efforts will further the mission of being one with our God and one with each other.

REFLECTIONS ON CLIMATE JUSTICE from THE PEACE AND JUSTICE MINISTRY from Pope Francis' "Laudato Si"

The current global situation engenders feelings of instability and uncertainty, which in turn becomes "a seed bed for selfishness." When people become self-centered, their greed increases. The emptier a person's heart is, the more s/he needs to buy, own, and consume things. It becomes almost impossible to accept the limits imposed by reality and a sense of the common good disappears. As these attitudes become widespread, social norms are respected only to the extent that they do not clash with personal needs. Obsession with a consumerist lifestyle, especially when only a few people can maintain it, can only lead to violence and mutual destruction. Yet all is not lost--no system can completely suppress our openness to what is good, true, and beautiful or our God given ability to respond to his grace at work deep in our hearts. We should not forget the dignity God has bestowed upon us. No one has the right to take it from us.

FOOD CUPBOARD THANKSGIVING BASKETS

We will be distributing Thanksgiving baskets to needy families. Please consider donating frozen turkeys or non-perishable food. Call Evelyn Rogers at 215-438-1514.

Due to limited storage at this space, we need turkeys delivered on Thursday, November 23 between 8am and 12 noon and we cannot accept uncooked turkeys. Questions: call 215-849-0179.

ALL ANNOUNCEMENTS FOR NEXT WEEK'S BULLETIN MUST BE SENT TO SECRETARY@SAINT-VINCENT-CHURCH.ORG BY 8 AM MONDAY.

Julia Greeley

Denver's Angel of Charity was born into slavery, at Hannibal, Missouri, between 1833 and 1848. As a young child, Julia's right eye was destroyed by a slavemaster's whip. Freed by the Emancipation Proclamation in 1863, Julia subsequently earned her keep working for white families in Missouri, Colorado, Wyoming and New Mexico—though mostly in the Denver area. Though herself a working poor woman, Greeley was dedicated to assisting poor families in her neighborhood. When her resources were inadequate, begged for food, fuel and clothing for the needy.

To avoid embarrassing the people she helped, Greeley did most of her charitable work under cover of night through dark alleys. Sadly, these hidden good works were done at night mostly because the White people she was helping would have been ashamed to be seen taking help from an African American woman. Greeley worked within the system of White supremacist culture and time to alleviate suffering wherever she could.

Greeley entered the Catholic Church at Sacred Heart Parish in Denver in 1880. The Jesuits who ran the parish considered her the most enthusiastic promoter of devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus they had ever seen. Every month she visited on foot every fire station in Denver and delivered literature of the Sacred Heart League to the firemen, Catholics and non-Catholics alike and to people of all ethnicities..

A daily communicant, Greeley had a rich devotion to the Blessed Sacrament and the Blessed Virgin and continued her prayers while working. Julia Greeley's life complicates the story of race and power in Catholic America by the way she moved throughout the power structures of her day, and we are challenged to view her in the light of faith. Greeley joined the Secular Franciscan Order in 1901 and was active in it till her death in 1918.

"I ENCOURAGE YOU TO SUPPORT YOUR SEMINARY, AND KNOW THAT YOU ARE ALWAYS WELCOME TO VISIT."

Dear Friends,

If asked, "What is the seminary?" most of the faithful in the Archdiocese of Philadelphia might respond by describing a physical place. But a seminary is not so much a physical place, as it is a spiritual mission where the work of education and formation meet. St. Charles Borromeo Seminary is where people called to serve Christ's church acquire the education, skills and training they'll need as effective disciples. Because it has been part of the Archdiocese for nearly 200 years, it's easy to take our seminary for granted. But consider this: eight other U.S. dioceses, five religious communities and two international dioceses send their young men here to be formed as future priests.

To continue this source of service and tradition, I ask Catholics like you to be as generous as you can in supporting St. Charles Borromeo Seminary. St. Charles is crucial to the education not only of ordained priests and deacons who will serve us all, but also of the hundreds of lay and religious men and women in our graduate School of Theological Studies.

In the following pages are short profiles of some of the extraordinary people your kindness will benefit. I pray that you will come to understand that St. Charles Borromeo Seminary is, indeed: For today. For tomorrow. For all of us.

I encourage you to support your seminary, and know that you are always welcome to visit. May God bless you all.

Sincerely yours in Jesus Christ,

+ Charles J. Chaput, Jr., S.O.C.

LET US PRAY...

O Lord our God, in the name of our Daughters and Sisters of Nigeria we come to you on bended knee in prayer. In the heat of this day, suffering and hardship has visited young ones and we beg you, almighty Father, Son and Holy Spirit to bring forth release and mercy on those who have been captured, sold and raped. Reverse O Lord, the spirit of the captors. Restore O Lord, the hope of these young innocent girls and bring Recovery to them and their families. Relieve the injured and Redeem O Lord, this situation and drench it with Your love and mercy. We remember O Lord, how You set the captives free in Egypt and how You carved a way to freedom by splitting the waters of the Red Sea. We remember, O Lord how Your mighty hand brought David out of the lion's den and we ask You, O Lord to do the same for our dear young Sisters and Daughters. We come to You this day, knowing the fullness of Your amazing grace which makes a way out of no way. We thank You O Lord for what You can do and will do in Jesus' name- Amen
