Mission Statement

St. Vincent de Paul is a faith community striving to live Jesus' gospel message of love, peace and justice for all peoples. In the spirit of St. Vincent de Paul, our inclusive community welcomes, affirms and serves both the poorest of the poor and those who are alienated and most vulnerable among us. Our individual faith journeys join together in the celebration of the Eucharist. Through the guidance of the Holy Spirit, we will continue to nurture the gifts of all our members. Our parish family will draw strength and unity from diversity. We will foster an atmosphere of warmth, hospitality and prayerfulness. We pray that our commitment to these efforts will further the mission of being one with our God and one with each other.

Consider a tax-deductible gift to POWER Interfaith! Send to POWER, 1429 N. 11th St, Philadelphia 19122.

Questions? Comments? Want to stay in the loop or get involved? Contact Terri Burgin (tburgin84@aol.com) or Mary Laver (mlaver14@comcast.net).

PEACE & JUSTICE MINISTRY

We continue to lift up messages from Pope Francis' Laudato Si. This week the focus is on REDEFINING PROGRESS according to Pope Francis: There is a tendency to believe that every increase in power means an increase in progress itself; an advance in security, usefulness, welfare and vigor as if reality, goodness and truth automatically flow from technological and economic power as such. The fact is that our immense technological development has not been accompanied by a development in human responsibility, values and conscience...but human beings are not autonomous. Our freedom fades when it is handed over to the blind forces of the subconscious, of immediate needs, of self-interest, and of violence. In this sense, we stand naked and exposed in the face of our ever increasing power, lacking the wherewithal to control it...Put simply, it is a matter of redefining progress. A technological and economic development which does not leave in its wake a better world and an integrally higher quality of life cannot be considered progress. Laudato Si, 105, 194.

Prayers of the faithful

O day spring, sun of justice. May your church be the beacon of light to those parts of the world in the darkness of injustice and oppression (let us pray...)

O desire of nations, endow world leaders with the wisdom needed to serve their people to meet basic needs, in a world free of violence and wars.....

O adonai, leader of the house of israel, bless the land of your birth with justice and peace for the people- Israelis, Palestinians, and Christians-who dwell there now...

O rod of Jesse and only joy of human hearts, heal those who are burdened with economic concerns, poor health, loneliness or prejudice with the assurance that you know their needs and are with them in their darkness. May our dead know the fullness of desire

O Emmanuel, help this faith community, in this final day of advent, to quiet our hearts, in the midst of busyness and worldly distractions. And in the stillness, recognize you within, and among us....

O god through all ages and seasons, help us welcome winter, with the magic of its snow, the threat of sleet and ice, the confusion of warm, knowing all weather bows down to you as creator, and that we are one with all creation.....

CELEBRATING SAINT STEPHEN

Tradition tells us that Saint Stephen's task in the early Church was organizing aid for the poor. Beginning sometime in the nineteenth century, British-influenced countries have observed Boxing Day on December 26th, Saint Stephen's feast. Families that were better off would offer Christmas boxes full of money, clothing, or food to servants, errand boys, and the poor.

This tradition offers us a chance to shift the focus of the day after Christmas. Instead of braving the malls, why not make this a day to take stock of possessions—to examine what things could be used to bless those who are less fortunate?

Here are some ideas:

Closets: Do you or your children have so many clothes that you have to box up out-of-season items? Did you receive new clothing or accessories for Christmas? Can they replace older items that are still in good enough shape to pass on to family members, friends, homeless or children's shelters, or even donation boxes like USAgain? If not, find a PlanetAid box, which recycles fabric and uses the proceeds to help the developing world.

Storage: Some people rent units to keep things they don't have room for in their homes. Is it time to give some of that away? Do you still have boxes of outgrown baby or kids' clothes that can bless a children's shelter or even the school nurse's office at a school in a low-income neighborhood?

Kitchen:

Do you have any non-perishables that could go to a food bank? Do you have a “junk drawer” full of kitchen gadgets you haven’t used? Coffee mugs? Seasonal towels that are always forgotten? Pass them on.

Toys:

Do you have broken toys or partial sets that can be recycled? Are there simply too many toys in your home? Use this as an opportunity to teach your kids about sacrifice and charity. Have them choose a given number to donate.

Mental clutter:

Examine your ongoing commitments. Have you taken on so much that your mind is constantly buzzing? Is it time to leave some tasks to others?

The feast of Saint Stephen, the first martyr, is a chance to re-orient ourselves after the busyness of the commercial Christmas season. By clearing out the clutter in our own lives, we can make more room for Christ.

Christmas SHINES ITS miracle IN OUR hearts.

December 8, 2017

Dear Family and Friends,

Have a Blessed Christmas and a New Year (2018) filled with God's Choicest Blessings!

I usually write about five different Christmas letters, but this year I decided to write one for everyone. First, let me thank you for your prayers, love and friendship. I really believe that this is a time of prayer for us and the entire world. It is a time that hopefully, we will all turn to God for guidance. As I look at our country, I see divisiveness and hate, when we need healing and unity and respect for each other and our differences. We need the love that God brought into the world.

Once again, 2017 filled my life with wonderful faithful people who care about God, family and others. Let me take this time to thank all of you who helped with the AFRICAN APPEAL either by your prayers or financial support. So much good was done. You are awesome. I will fill you in later, when I write on that subject.

I was also blessed to go to Rome for the first ever Vincentian Family Symposium. We had 11,000 people attend from 99 countries. What a Blessing! Vincentian Family is any lay or religious group that seeks to help the poor and needy in the Spirit of St. Vincent De Paul.

My parish seems to get busier each year. We are known in Philly as the "Social Justice" parish. Oh, what an honor to work with so many loving people like yourselves. We are still working on replacing our roof; first time in 167 years. Hopefully by next Christmas it will be finished. Pray for Father Joe Cummins, my associate. He has been struggling with cancer and a variety of health issues for many years.

I hope that life is going well for each of you. At Christmas, give the gift of love. Tell Jesus you love Him and tell all those around you that you love them.

Be assured of my prayers for you during Advent and the Christmas Season. Please keep me in yours. Thank you in advance for your support of my African Appeal.

Merry Christmas,

Father Sy Peterka

*When they saw him,
they worshipped him.*

LET US PRAY...

O Lord our God, in the name of our Daughters and Sisters of Nigeria we come to you on bended knee in prayer. In the heat of this day, suffering and hardship has visited young ones and we beg you, almighty Father, Son and Holy Spirit to bring forth release and mercy on those who have been captured, sold and raped. Reverse O Lord, the spirit of the captors. Restore O Lord, the hope of these young innocent girls and bring Recovery to them and their families. Relieve the injured and Redeem O Lord, this situation and drench it with Your love and mercy. We remember O Lord, how You set the captives free in Egypt and how You carved a way to freedom by splitting the waters of the Red Sea. We remember, O Lord how Your mighty hand brought David out of the lion's den and we ask You, O Lord to do the same for our dear young Sisters and Daughters. We come to You this day, knowing the fullness of Your amazing grace which makes a way out of no way. We thank You O Lord for what You can do and will do in Jesus' name- Amen
