Mission Statement

St. Vincent de Paul is a faith community striving to live Jesus' gospel message of love, peace and justice for all peoples. In the spirit of St. Vincent de Paul, our inclusive community welcomes, affirms and serves both the poorest of the poor and those who are alienated and most vulnerable among us. Our individual faith journeys join together in the celebration of the Eucharist. Through the guidance of the Holy Spirit, we will continue to nurture the gifts of all our members. Our parish family will draw strength and unity from diversity. We will foster an atmosphere of warmth, hospitality and prayerfulness. We pray that our commitment to these efforts will further the mission of being one with our God and one with each other.

POWER

In our Lenten journey were challenged to "go forth to love and serve the world," in response to God's love for us. One way to do that is by mobilizing people to change public policies that hurt many communities - especially African-Americans and other minorities. Here are two ways you can be a "faith-fueled mobilizer" this spring:

Voting Matters! Make a commitment to contact your family members and friends to make sure they vote in the May 21 primary election. Eligibility is simple: Be a citizen, and be 18 by election day. Having an incarceration record does NOT disqualify a person from registering to vote in PA.

Save WED JUNE 12 for our children! Join parents, teachers, students, and people of faith from across PA as we go to Harrisburg to tell legislators the time is NOW to fully and fairly fund our public schools! With POWER's leadership, we've made huge progress: Many legislators now realize this is not just a "Philly problem," and we're starting to see bipartisan support for addressing it! We have to keep the pressure up. Watch for sign-ups for round-trip bus service provided by POWER.

BOXTOPS: HELP CATHOLIC EDUCATION

Please help Catholic education by clipping boxtops from some of your favorite products. A list is posted at the back of the church as is a container for the box tops.

General Intercessions
Second Sunday of Easter
April 27-28, 2019

11:00 Mass, add "In your mercy we pray..."

Risen Jesus, sustain in this House of Vincent
the energy and love poured out during our Triduum celebrations.
Help us continue to weave your tapestry of love in our parish family.

Bless and protect all the places where people gather in your name.
In Sri Lanka, Louisiana, and Paris, console those who have lost loved ones and sacred sites to violence and disaster.

Break through the locked doors of our fears and our assumptions.
Lead us to the peace that comes from deeply trusting you.

Deepen our understanding of your Divine Mercy.
When hurt and anger damage our relationships,
show us how to offer and accept forgiveness.

Receive our beloved deceased,
and comfort those who grieve
with the hope of eternal life.
Strengthen our faith in what we have not seen, but still believe.

Christine Eberle

Prayer

O God the Father, God the Son and God the Holy Spirit we profess our belief in this mystery. We thank you for it and consecrate to you, through the Immaculate Virgin Mother of our Savior, ourselves and all the works and all the possessions of the Missionary Servants of the Most Blessed Trinity. We reaffirm our hope and prayer that this Immaculate Mother may be the Queen of the Cenacle. We place ourselves and our affairs in a particular way under her kindly care this year. O Immaculate Mother of God, we ask your blessing and prayer and beg of you, through your Immaculate Conception, to pray to God the Father, God the Son and God the Holy Spirit for us. We ask you also, O Immaculate Mother, that the children of the Cenacle may have the grace of purity in thought, word and deed; and also purity of intention and that ever among us may be purity of doctrine. Table Prayer for the Season of Easter

This is the day the Lord has made!

Today is the Day of days:
We are filled with Easter joy,
nourished by the bounty of the earth.

Today is the Day of days:
May we know Christ present
when we break bread with those we love.

Today is the Day of days:
Let us show Christ to the poor and hungry,
so our service to them is a sign of his glory.

This is the day the Lord has made!
Let all the earth cry out with joy,
today is the Day of days!
Bless this meal, O Lord, and grant everyone a place at the feast of heaven. Amen.

THE FRUIT OF THE SPIRIT IN REAL LIFE

Chances are, as a former Catholic school child you once had to be able to list all the fruits of the Spirit. If you've forgotten them, Pentecost offers a chance to revisit them in a new way.

In fact, in Galatians 5, Paul speaks of a single fruit of the Spirit, manifesting through nine facets—much like segments of an orange. When our life in the Spirit is fruitful, all the facets are visible, and indeed, they overlap again and again.

Take a few minutes to reflect on the working of the Holy Spirit in your life. Are all the “segments” of the fruit present?

Love:

To love is to desire good for others. Whom do I love?
To whom do I wish evil, and how can I change that?

Joy and Peace:

Is my spirit at peace? Am I joy-filled, or am I often angry, anxious, or at odds with others and the world?
Do I take time to be still in the presence of God, the source of all joy and peace?

Patience:

Do I persist in the tasks to which I am called, even in the face of resistance? Do I fly off the handle when others try my patience?

Kindness:

Am I focused outward, ready to lend a sympathetic ear? Do I listen with an open heart to those whose experiences are different from my own?

Generosity:

Do I give people the benefit of the doubt, or do I default to negative judgment? Do I make tithing and charity a priority, or do I allow my own wants to swallow my income?

Faithfulness:

Do I talk behind other people's backs? Do I criticize friends or family in my heart without sharing my concerns? Am I faithful to God? Do I let derogatory or hurtful comments to or about other children of God go unchallenged, out of fear of conflict or judgment?

Gentleness:

When the inevitable irritations of the day arise, do I roll with the punches? Do I approach conflict in a way that seeks the best interests of everyone involved? When I discipline those under my authority, do I take a punitive approach, or one that helps us all grow into holier, healthier individuals?

Self-control:

Self-discipline touches so many areas of life: expressing anger, word choices in online interactions, scheduling, food consumption, spending habits, screen time, the use of physical powers, time management. Am I intentionally under control in the way I navigate the world?
