Mission Statement

St. Vincent de Paul is a faith community striving to live Jesus' gospel message of love, peace and justice for all peoples. In the spirit of St. Vincent de Paul, our inclusive community welcomes, affirms and serves both the poorest of the poor and those who are alienated and most vulnerable among us. Our individual faith journeys join together in the celebration of the Eucharist. Through the guidance of the Holy Spirit, we will continue to nurture the gifts of all our members. Our parish family will draw strength and unity from diversity. We will foster an atmosphere of warmth, hospitality and prayerfulness. We pray that our commitment to these efforts will further the mission of being one with our God and one with each other.

POWER

Come to Harrisburg to support our Children's Schools!

It's time to sign up! See the sheets at the church entrance for info about FREE bus transportation, lunch and snacks for our pilgrimage with hundreds of others from across the state on WED JUNE 12. All generations welcome! Our purpose: Tell our law-makers that NOW is the time to fully and fairly fund public schools for our children across the state! Enough of "education apartheid," where PA has the biggest gap in the US between over-funded and under-funded schools. Not surprisingly, that means districts with more children of color consistently receive less than their fair share. We see progress over the last year, as this becomes more of a bipartisan issue. You and your family can be part of tipping the scales! A very family-friendly and educational experience. For more information or to sign up by phone, contact Jane Bonner (215-844-4789) or Sharon Fisher (215-438-8602).

THANK YOU

Many thanks to all those who helped make the Bobby Jo Valentine Concert Fundraiser a success. Your donations and concert attendance are deeply appreciated by the Board of MY PLACE GERMANTOWN.

11:00 Mass add, “We pray to the Lord...”

Loving God—you who make all things new—Guide and strengthen Pope Francis, as he leads the Church towards greater transparency and trustworthiness.

Sung Refrain . . .

You who opened the door of faith to the Gentiles:
help us to keep that door open for all people,
creating a welcoming space for anyone who feels excluded.

As our nation responds to those seeking refuge, asylum, and sanctuary, teach us how to love one another as you loved us.

Sustain the hope of everyone on the brink of something new-- especially those expecting a child, seeking employment, beginning retirement, or being released from prison.

Help us to bring comfort to those who are dying,
and consolation to those who are sorrowing,
until death and mourning vanish in your New Jerusalem.

POWER

Join POWER in Harrisburg on June 12th!

What are we trying to accomplish?

Until the spring of 2016, Pennsylvania was one of only 3 states in the United States with no consistent formula for distributing state basic education dollars. This resulted in large disparities between districts, particularly districts with majority white students compared to those with more children of color.

In 2016, State legislators enacted a well-designed formula with bi-partisan support, a Fair Funding Formula. However, they established *-by law- that only new money added to the education budget since 2015, is distributed according to the Fair Funding Formula. Therefore, the distribution of PA basic education funding remains unfair.

What is the Fair Funding Formula?

The formula adjusts the state's portion of school district funding according to characteristics which impact a district's ability to provide a full and appropriate education for the children they are committed to serve.

How did it the formula come about?

The characteristics and their respective weights in the Fair Funding Formula are the result of a year-long study by the 15-member Basic Education Funding Commission, which was created by the state legislature following pressure by a number of community advocates for good education. Hearings were held in locations across the state with testimony given by "experts" invited to testify by the commission members. Prior to the hearing held in Philadelphia, through planning a direct action and not backing down, the faith-based, community-organizing group POWER pressured the Commission to allow public testimony for the remainder of the hearings.

The resulting combination of factors agreed upon by the bi-partisan commission with community input provides a transparent and educationally-justified basis for distributing basic education funding.

In response to the commission's report, Pennsylvania's legislative bodies enacted the recommended fair funding formula. BUT.. Only for "new money".

The budgeted money is still distributed in the non fair way. At an optimistic rate of 3% increase of "new money" per year, it would take more than 22 years for even 50% of the budgeted money to be distributed fairly. There would never be 100% FAIR FUNDING.

Legislation for 100% Fair Funding: House Bill 961

All of the money, 100%, allocated for basic education funding must be distributed through the Fair Funding Formula to eliminate the years of racial bias in its distribution and ensure FAIR FUNDING for Education. Until it is, the funding will always be unfair. Ask your Representative to back HB 961!

YEARS

MAKING A DIFFERENCE FOR 35 YEARS

Your support created a community of compassion and care

Mother's Day 1984 – A small group of parishioners approached Pastor Rich Rock, C.M., regarding their concerns about the increasing number of hungry people in Germantown. After much discussion and organizing, Saint Vincent's Hall opened its doors and served the first meal to about 40 hungry neighbors. It was a simple meal of soup and bread. In the early days the operation was primitive: Brother Al, C.M., got the food and volunteers cooked and served the meal. Services expanded quickly because the need was so great. People living in poverty, who were shunned on the street, came into St. Vincent's Dining Room and were seen and heard. Your generosity gave relief and dignity to those in great need. On October 1, 1996, this parish outreach became incorporated as Face to Face, an independent 501(c)3. Because of supporters like you, it grew into a multi-service community center offering nutritious hot meals, health services, legal services and social services. Today you help thousands of people each year. Your gift has provided relief to those in deep poverty.

O God the Father, God the Son and God the Holy Spirit we profess our belief in this mystery. We thank you for it and consecrate to you, through the Immaculate Virgin Mother of our Savior, ourselves and all the works and all the possessions of the Missionary Servants of the Most Blessed Trinity. We reaffirm our hope and prayer that this Immaculate Mother may be the Queen of the Cenacle. We place ourselves and our affairs in a particular way under her kindly care this year. O Immaculate Mother of God, we ask your blessing and prayer and beg of you, through your Immaculate Conception, to pray to God the Father, God the Son and God the Holy Spirit for us. We ask you also, O Immaculate Mother, that the children of the Cenacle may have the grace of purity in thought, word and deed; and also purity of intention and that ever among us may be purity of doctrine. Today is the Day of days:
Let us show Christ to the poor and hungry,
so our service to them is a sign of his glory.

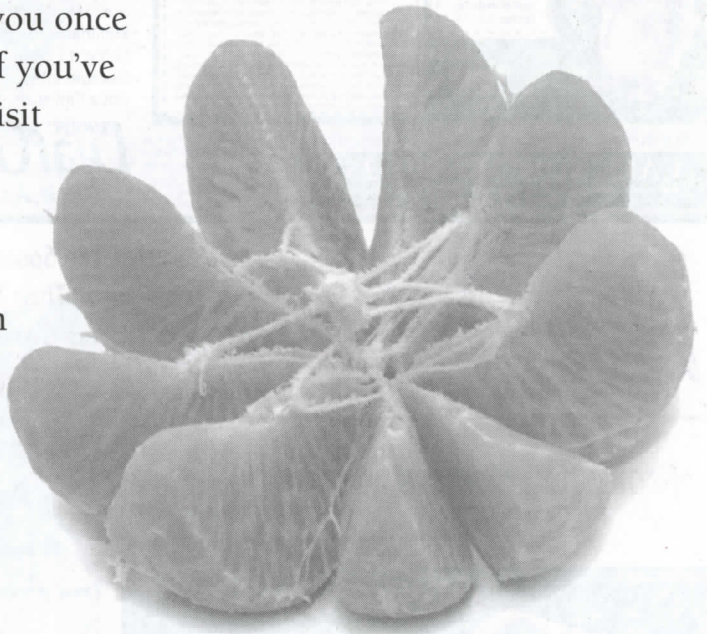

This is the day the Lord has made!
Let all the earth cry out with joy,
today is the Day of days!
Bless this meal, O Lord, and grant everyone a place at the feast of heaven. Amen.

THE FRUIT OF THE SPIRIT IN REAL LIFE

Chances are, as a former Catholic school child you once had to be able to list all the fruits of the Spirit. If you've forgotten them, Pentecost offers a chance to revisit them in a new way.

In fact, in Galatians 5, Paul speaks of a single fruit of the Spirit, manifesting through nine facets—much like segments of an orange. When our life in the Spirit is fruitful, all the facets are visible, and indeed, they overlap again and again.

Take a few minutes to reflect on the working of the Holy Spirit in your life. Are all the “segments” of the fruit present?

Love:

To love is to desire good for others. Whom do I love?
To whom do I wish evil, and how can I change that?

Joy and Peace:

Is my spirit at peace? Am I joy-filled, or am I often angry, anxious, or at odds with others and the world?
Do I take time to be still in the presence of God, the source of all joy and peace?

Patience:

Do I persist in the tasks to which I am called, even in the face of resistance? Do I fly off the handle when others try my patience?

Kindness:

Am I focused outward, ready to lend a sympathetic ear? Do I listen with an open heart to those whose experiences are different from my own?

Generosity:

Do I give people the benefit of the doubt, or do I default to negative judgment? Do I make tithing and charity a priority, or do I allow my own wants to swallow my income?

Faithfulness:

Do I talk behind other people's backs? Do I criticize friends or family in my heart without sharing my concerns? Am I faithful to God? Do I let derogatory or hurtful comments to or about other children of God go unchallenged, out of fear of conflict or judgment?

Gentleness:

When the inevitable irritations of the day arise, do I roll with the punches? Do I approach conflict in a way that seeks the best interests of everyone involved? When I discipline those under my authority, do I take a punitive approach, or one that helps us all grow into holier, healthier individuals?

Self-control:

Self-discipline touches so many areas of life: expressing anger, word choices in online interactions, scheduling, food consumption, spending habits, screen time, the use of physical powers, time management. Am I intentionally under control in the way I navigate the world?
